

Washington University in St. Louis

Prof. Christopher Byrnes is the Edward H. and Florence G. Skinner Professor of Systems Science and Mathematics at Washington University in St. Louis. He received an Honorary Doctorate of Technology from the Royal Institute of Technology (KTH) in Stockholm in 1998 and was elected a Foreign Member of the Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering Sciences in 2002.

Chris Byrnes is author of more than 250 technical papers and books. With his coauthors, he has (twice) received the IEEE George Axelby Award for best paper in the IEEE Transactions in Automatic Control and an IFAC Best Paper Award. Moreover, he was awarded the SIAM Reid Prize in 2005 and the IEEE Hendrik W. Bode Prize in 2008.

In the Summer Semester 2009, he has the Giovanni Prodi Chair in Nonlinear Analysis at the University of Würzburg. The next academic year, Chris Byrnes will be Guest Professor at KTH in Stockholm.

For more information have a closer look at this webpage:

<http://engineering.wustl.edu/facultybio.aspx?faculty=149>